

★ Manifest abundance in 2024!

12 NIGHTS of MAGIC & MIRACLES

December 25, 2023 to January 6, 2024

SCHEDULE & PREPARATIONS

Time of Transition – Experience the magic of 12 Nights of Wonder!

Come to rest and give life a new direction.

Use the time between the years to calm down, put old things behind you and find your vision for the new year.

The 12 Nights of Wonder are a magical time between December 25 and January 6. They symbolize the twelve months of the new year. During this time "between the time" (which results from the difference between the solar and lunar years), predictions can be made about the events of the coming year.

It is a time when past, present and future converge and we can plant the seeds for the new year.

INTRODUCTION

Recognise the greater Galactic patterns – Transition from the old paradigm into a new era!

We are invited to recognize the greater Galactic patterns in and around us in order to deduce what it means for our lives.

We are presently in the midst of transitioning from an old, disintegrating paradigm into a completely new era.

In these times of fundamental change, one thing is certain, wherever you are in your life: we are truly reborn when we understand the messages given to us, and live according to them.

The 12 Nights of Wonder are based on the ancient wisdom of our ancestors, who knew exactly how to align with the energies of these portal days leading into the New Year, and prepare to their highest divine good for the 12 months ahead.

I share this mythical ritual with you and I know for certain: The 12 Nights of Wonder are here to help you with that!

A comprehensive package awaits you:

🎁 12 daily recorded guided meditations and activations, unveiling the energies for each new month

🎁 4 live calls for the 12 nights for personalized astro alignments and Q&A sessions

🎁 bonus call for a 13th wish, your sacred responsibility to manifest in 2024

It is important that you find peace for yourself during the 12 Nights of Wonder.

This helps you to sort everything out and realign yourself for the coming year.

Answer those questions for yourself:

💖 how can you provide a framework for this time that is right for you?

💖 a place of your own where you can take time for yourself?

💖 a window of time every day to delve deeper?

these days of transition the time qualities are particularly suitable to recognize the possibilities hidden within them. Allow yourself to experience deeper contact within.

CLEANING & CLEANSING

Physical and energetic tidiness – Presence and clear focus!

Take time for the topic of cleansing.

Be it your body, your home, your digital life, be it physical or energetic, pay attention to this topic again and again during these portal days.

Make sure that your own things are tidy and clean during the 12 Nights of Wonder! Digital tidiness and decluttering can also be a relief :)

The idea is to create a sacred space inside yourself and around you to get crystal clear for your mission ahead!

Incense is a good idea on these days.

Our ancestors cleansed their properties, their home and cattle on each day during the 12 Nights of Wonder.

Choose your incense intuitively – I recommend mugwort, white sage, and frankincense.

Mugwort cleans the space.

Sage clears the energy fields of your body. Frankincense blesses and opens your psychic channels.

I recommend the following ritual for cleaning and cleansing:

Make two rounds of incense through your home.

First round is for cleansing. Then open the windows to air out the space. Second round is for the energy you want to create in your space.

Your intention is important here.

Embark on every round with an attitude of presence and clear focus!

Don't forget to give thanks afterwards!

DIARY & VISIONS

Expression of experiences and insights – Magic unfolds!

Writing allows you to give concrete expression to your experiences and insights during the 12 Nights of Wonder.

It can therefore be very helpful to make notes.

Keeping a diary on the upcoming themes of the 12 Nights of Wonder has always proven to be a good idea.

You get in the mood for the coming year, write down keywords and channeled messages that come through, especially if you allow your star families to connect with you.

As we enter a co-creative mythical experience with powerful star seeds and light leaders, you will become attuned and increasingly sensitive to what is in the air.

You will sharpen your inner navigation system and enhance your magic.

Therefore take notice of the happenings around you - who do you connect to, and how does that feel, who has left or entered your life during the 12 Nights, the weather patterns, the overall energy around you, the business or quietness of the time...

Equally be aware of your bodies – physical, emotional, mental – what do they want to tell you? Sit down at least once a day and ask your heart and soul what they desire for you!

You can also create pictures and charge them with the energy that is released through the process.

It's less about the result and more about the process itself, and the expression of what is unfolding.

I use to create a collage that forms an overall picture.

High-quality paper of any kind enhances the process!

13 WISHES

Ritual of writing down and burning your wishes!

This ritual creates the flow of abundance so that you inevitably receive what you desire.

Alongside burning incense the burning of wishes is a very powerful ritual and manifestation tool.

Before we meet for our first live call, take some time for yourself and think about what you hope for in the coming year:

your wishes, goals, needs and heart's and soul's desires for the months to come.

Write down whatever comes to your mind - everything is welcome, there are no taboos!

When you think you are done, and you believe there are no more ideas to come, close your eyes and ask:

What does my soul want to create in 2024?

Give yourself 10 more minutes to write down what your soul tells you. This might seem to be really faaaar out. Do not judge!

From what you have written down, draft 13 wishes, write each of them on a paper slip and fold them so that you can no longer read the text.

Find a beautiful container for your paper slips - an ornament jar, an embroidered pouch, a treasure chest.

After our first live call, you will take out the first piece of paper and burn it unread.

You will do this every evening until there is only one of the 13 wish slips left.

This last wish is not burnt - instead, you are allowed to open the note and read it. It is your sacred responsibility to ensure that this wish is fulfilled and manifested in 2024.

LET'S STEP IN...

.. to co-create
greater alignment
and transformation for 2024!

I am delighted to be able to inspire you on this journey.

The two basic principles this experience are:

The alignment with your Galactic astrology chart so you are well prepared for the greater picture that unfolds in your life in the next 12 months

The transformative time qualities that await us in the coming year.

Dedicating yourself to those principles is a particularly good decision at this time of change in galactic dimensions.

These topics are so comprehensive that repeating and deepening them is an ever expanding journey of growth.

Connected to the greater qualities of this time, our path leads us further and further into our galactic future self.

The New Earth is being born through each and every one of us.

The more we live our truthfulness in our work and relationships, the greater our contribution to New Earth.

I am particularly keen to empower all those people who feel that their time has come.

Do you recognise this call?

Let's embark on a co-creative mythical experience to anchor miracles and enhance our combined magic!
